3

Located in the Vail Valley, Edwards is the perfect destination to enjoy everything the surrounding area has to offer. Away from the large crowds of the village and Beaver Creek, this small town provides a pedestrian riverwalk with lodging, shops and dining all within walking distance. It's the ideal jumping-off point for a three-day adventure in the mountains.

Sustainability Activity
Leave No Trace

The best way to give back to our mountain communities is to minimize your impact on the environment. Practice Leave No Trace guidelines while you're enjoying the mountains, rivers and trails. Take things a step further and bring a small bag with you on your adventures to remove trash from trails.

Activity
Mountain Bike the Berry Creek Trail

When you stay at the Inn at Riverwalk, take advantage of 20 percent off a mountain-bike rental from Kind Bikes and Skis to explore the popular Berry Creek Trail. This loop is about 4 miles long with a fun and flowy downhill descent after a challenging 1,000-foot climb.
