LEARN ABOUT THE PAST
There is a strong connection to Native Americans here. Hot springs were sacred grounds. Several National Parks and Monuments pay homage to these ancient cultures. Trains, mining, ghost towns and western heritage are an important part of the past and are well-preserved.

TRY NEW CUISINE
There aren’t a lot of chain restaurants in these small towns, but there are plenty of microbreweries! And food is an art form, using locally grown products.

DO A HOT SPRINGS ROAD TRIP
Take a week or two to really experience the Colorado Historic Hot Springs Loop. From Denver, begin your itinerary in Chaffee County - the communities of Buena Vista, Nathrop and Salida. Then travel south to Pagosa Springs, Ouray and Ridgway are the next stops. Onward to Glenwood Springs. Finally, Steamboat Springs completes the journey.

www.Colorado.com/HotSpringsLoop
It’s a genuine western setting off the beaten path. From world-class mountain biking and skiing to breathtaking hiking to the refreshing beauty of the hot springs, rivers and lakes. Festivals celebrate hot air balloons, rodeos, libations and music. Take a dip in the downtown Old Town Hot Springs multi-use complex with two waterslides. For a rustic wilderness setting, soak at the creekside Strawberry Park Hot Springs.

www.steamboatchamber.com

Fifteen 14,000-foot peaks and Colorado’s most popular whitewater rafting river, the Arkansas, dominate this region. At Mount Princeton Hot Springs Resort pick from numerous geothermal pools or find a hot pot in Chalk Creek. Historic Cottonwood Hot Springs first opened in 1878. Salida Hot Springs Aquatic Center is one of the largest indoor hot spring pools in the country. For a completely private experience reserve Alpine Hot Springs Hideaway, Antero Hot Springs Cabins or Creekside Hot Springs Cabin.

www.colorfulcolorado.com

Soak in the odorless, sulfur-free Ouray Hot Springs Pool. Take a steam in the vaporcave at The Historic Wiesbaden Hot Springs Spa & Lodgings. Soak au naturel at Orvis Hot Springs. Hotels offering private mineral pools are Twin Peaks Lodge & Hot Springs and Box Canyon Lodge & Hot Springs.

Known as “the Switzerland of America,” Ouray is the Jeeping Capitol of the World. The Ouray Ice Park offers the best ice climbing in Colorado.

www.ouraycolorado.com

Surrounded by 2.5 million acres of wilderness and national forest, Pagosa Springs is the official home to the world’s deepest hot springs. The Springs Resort and Spa has 23 terraced hot springs pools alongside the San Juan River. Overlook Hot Springs offers rooftop tubs and Victorian-style mineral baths. Healing Waters Resort & Spa features a large outdoor pool and European-style steam rooms. Many local businesses utilize the abundant geothermal heat.

www.visitpagosasprings.com