Buell Children's Museum

Background: In 2002, the Buell Children's Museum was voted the second best children's museum in the nation by Child Magazine. With exhibits that emphasize science, art and history, there is an adventure for every kid, whether young or young at heart.

Questions to Ask:

As you explore the museum and engage with the interactive exhibits, ask

1. What type of activity is this? Art? History? Science?
2. What do you like about it?

Activity: After exploring the museum, identify your favorite activity by completing the following chart (or you can answer the questions aloud).

Favorite Activity	What type of activity is it? Art? History? Science	Why did you like this one the best?
